Accommodation

If you are enrolling in your first year at our Faculty, our Student Administration office will be happy to help you with your accommodation reservation at one of your preferred dormitories. Contact us at study@fhs.cuni.cz and we will send you a reservation form based on which we will communicate on your behalf with the university Dormitories and Refectories during the booking process.

After your first year, the Faculty will no longer provide reservations for you and you should arrange your accommodation on your own. If you are already accommodated in dormitory and wish to stay there another year, do not forget to prolong your reservation contract in the dormitory office.

We suggest that you book accommodation as soon as possible, as student dormitories and apartments are usually in high demand in Prague. Therefore, we suggest making your reservation well in advance – ideally, several months before the start of your studies.
